

EMERGENCY COMMUNITY BRIEFING

Recognition of Black People in Canada's Employment Equity Act

A historic Black rights fight is happening right now. For the first time, Black people are on the verge of being recognized in federal employment law.

Progress has stalled. This moment will not wait.

WHY THIS MATTERS:

- ✓ Fair access to opportunity
- ✓ Economic advancement
- ✓ Real accountability in federal workplaces
- ✓ Coordinated national community action

History is being written.
Will we move together?
Join the next steps.

presented by:

Nicholas Marcus Thompson

President & CEO, Black Class
Action Secretariat (BCAS)

MARCH 9th, 2026

6:00 PM

SCAN

Join us for the VIRTUAL ZOOM conversation
<https://bit.ly/MOTMTALKS0309>